You have the right to withdraw your consent. However, if you withdraw your consent, the withdrawal will not affect processing and disclosure preceding the withdrawal of your consent.

2. Sources

The personal data are being collected from you, from your device and from our surveillance cameras.

As regards data of beneficial owners, members of management and contacts in the businesses about which we process data in connection with the Money Laundering Act, these data come from the data subjects or the businesses about which we collect data to live up to our obligations under the Money Laundering Act.

3. Voluntariness

When we collect personal data directly from you, you give us your personal data voluntarily. The consequence if you do not give us the above personal data is that we cannot make the website available, analyse the use of invitations or make bookings for you (only for data subjects in the CRM system).

As regards data collected under the Money Laundering Act, it is compulsory to give these data in order for Bruun & Hjejle to meet its obligations under the Money Laundering Act.

4. Data processors

We use data processors to host personal data and to provide support, security etc. for the use of the systems. Some of our suppliers are domiciled in USA, why personal data may be transferred to USA. In such cases, we ensure a valid transfer basis for instance in the form of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses etc. for data transfers to third countries whose security level is not deemed adequate by the European Commission. Transfer may in other circumstances be necessary in order to establish, exercise or defend legal claims.

5. Only for data subjects in CRM who are signed up to receive invitations

We transfer the personal data to our data processors, who are currently web-hosting providers and email delivery providers.

6. Disclosure (in connection with participation in events)

In connection with booking of accommodation and travel, it may be necessary to disclose personal data to travel agencies, hotels, agents assisting with visa applications, embassies, event organizers, other participants in the event, course etc. The transfers are based on article 49 (1)(b)(c) and (e) in the General Data Protection Regulation.

7. Storage periods

- Visitors to the website: We do not store personal data about you, as we only use session cookies.
- CRM data subjects and event participants: We store personal data until you request that the data is deleted, until you have not been registered for three years with any interest areas or until you have not signed up for an event for more than three years (the latest of the three).
- Contacts: We store the data as long as they are relevant for the relationship with the supplier or business partners and for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
- Course participants: Registrations and course certificates are deleted after three years.
- Recordings of meeting participants: We store recordings until the purpose of the recording is no longer present.
- Persons mentioned in articles/judgments etc.: Stored without time limit in order to fulfil the purpose of knowledge.
- Next of kin: We delete personal data when an employee leaves the company.
- Beneficial owners, members of management and contacts in businesses about which we process data under the Money Laundering Act: We delete personal data 5 years after the termination of the business relationship or the completion of the individual transaction, cf. section 30 of the Money Laundering Act.

8. Your rights

Data subjects have the following rights (on the terms and subject to the exceptions provided by law):

- The right of access to personal data
- The right to rectify incorrect and misleading personal data
- The right to be forgotten
- The right to restrict the processing of personal data
- The right to data portability (where the processing is based on consent or contract)

You also have the right to file a complaint with the Danish Data Protection Agency – see www.datatilsynet.dk (in Danish only).

The right to object

Legitimate interests

You have the right - for reasons relating to your particular situation - to object to the processing of personal data where the legal basis is legitimate interests, as stated above. Hereafter, Bruun & Hjejle may no longer process the personal data unless Bruun & Hjejle demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Direct marketing

Only CRM data subjects that have signed up for event invitations

If personal data are processed for the purpose of direct marketing, you have the right at any time to object to the processing of your personal data for such marketing, including to object to profiling in so far as it relates to direct marketing. If you object to processing for the purpose of direct marketing, the personal data may no longer be processed for this purpose.
